2016

Dear Vendor,

We invite you to submit an application to participate in our 42nd Colonial Day on Saturday, September 10, 2016, in East Berlin, Pennsylvania.

Colonial Day vendors set up booths on both sides of West King Street in the heart of the National Historic District, where 18th and 19th century homes provide the perfect backdrop for displays of high quality handmade wares and art work.

Thousands of people from a wide area know that our event is the second Saturday in September and attend our event ready to buy, rain or shine. Wonderful artisans, artists, interesting demonstrations, entertainment, and delicious food provide a day's worth of good shopping, good eating, and fun for all.

Our eligibility standards require that all vendors make the wares they sell. We emphasize traditional crafts, contemporary crafts, and artwork which reflect the skills of the craftsperson or artist.

To maintain the quality of the event, a jury will evaluate all applications based on the photos and written descriptions you submit. The jury's decision is final.

The application must be returned promptly to secure a booth space so that we can plan the event on schedule. You will be notified of the jury's decision soon after receipt of your paperwork.

If you have questions, please email us at ebhps@comcast.net. Or phone 717-259-0822 and leave a message. We prefer that you email us.

All application documents, contract, rules and regulations, this cover letter, and other pertinent information are available at our website www.ebhpspa.org. Click on the "Colonial Day" link on the left-hand side of the home page. We also encourage you to view photos from prior Colonial Days on our website. Please visit our page on Facebook.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Bev Jadus, Chair
